The Second City comedy legends return to Overture with a new show on Friday, June 21

Madison, Wis. (June 7, 2024) —The Second City, the world's most influential name in comedy, is thrilled to return to Capitol Theater with their newest revue, "Comedian Rhapsody," for one night only on Friday, June 21 at 7:30 p.m. Tickets ($30-50) are available at overture.org.

"Comedian Rhapsody" is a ground-breaking showcase of classic sketch comedy and songs from the company's rich history, fresh new favorites, as well as the signature hilarious improv for which The Second City is famous.

This innovative and interactive performance by The Second City is a celebration of the comedic genius that has graced its stages for over six decades. With alumni such as Tina Fey, Stephen Colbert and Keegan-Michael Key, The Second City has an unmatched track record of launching the careers of comedy superstars.

About The Second City

Since opening its doors as a humble comedy cabaret in 1959, The Second City has grown to become the world's premier improv and sketch comedy institution. Boasting stages, touring companies and training centers across North America, The Second City has served as the launch pad for some of the world's foremost comedic talents. Its illustrious alumni list includes names such as John Belushi, John Candy, Chris Farley, Tina Fey, Keegan-Michael Key, Eugene Levy, Tim Meadows, Bill Murray, Mike Myers, Suzy Nakamura, Catherine O'Hara, Amy Poehler, Gilda Radner, Sam Richardson, Joan Rivers, Amber Ruffin, Jason Sudeikis and Steven Yeun, among countless others. The Second City has been the first name in laughter for over 60 years.

OVERTURE CENTER FOR THE ARTS in Madison, Wis., is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit arts organization that features seven state-of-the-art performance spaces and four galleries where national and international touring artists, nine resident companies and hundreds of local artists engage people in nearly 700,000 educational and artistic experiences each year.
